Date: 03.11.2020

Number of Participants: 200 students

About the activity:

Introduction: The Mask Distribution Drive, in collaboration with the Rotaract Club of Prestige on November 3, 2020, addressed the crucial need for promoting public health and safety during the ongoing global pandemic. The event aimed to distribute masks to the community to encourage responsible practices and curb the spread of COVID-19.

Objective: The primary objective of the event was to contribute to public health by providing free masks to community members. Collaborating with the Rotaract Club of Prestige, the drive aimed to raise awareness about the importance of wearing masks and maintaining safety protocols.

Event Highlights:

1. Mask Distribution: Participants actively engaged in the distribution of masks in high-traffic areas, public spaces, and areas with limited access to protective gear. The distribution drive emphasized the significance of adopting preventive measures to protect oneself and others.
2. Educational Outreach: The Rotaract Club of Prestige organized educational sessions on proper mask usage, hand hygiene, and the importance of maintaining physical distance. These outreach efforts aimed to ensure that the community not only received masks but also understood their effective use.
3. Collaborative Efforts: With 200 students participating, the event showcased the strength of collective efforts in addressing public health concerns. The collaboration with the Rotaract Club of Prestige enabled a well-organized and impactful distribution drive.

Acknowledgments: We extend our sincere gratitude to the Rotaract Club of Prestige for their collaborative efforts and commitment to public health. Their active involvement significantly contributed to the success of the Mask Distribution Drive.

Conclusion: The Mask Distribution Drive successfully addressed a critical need within the community by providing essential protective gear during the ongoing pandemic. Through the distribution of masks and educational outreach, the event emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in mitigating the spread of COVID-19.

As we continue to prioritize community well-being, we look forward to more collaborative initiatives with the Rotaract Club of Prestige and other partners who share our commitment to public health and safety.

Date: 22.09.2020

No of students Participated: 15

About the activity: The World Rose Day - Beware of Cancer (Poster Making) activity, held in collaboration with the Rotaract Club of Prestige on September 22, 2020, aimed to harness the creative talents of students to spread awareness about cancer, its prevention, and the importance of supporting those affected.

Objective: The primary objective of the event was to use art as a medium to communicate important messages about cancer awareness and support. The collaboration with the Rotaract Club of Prestige added value to the initiative, combining artistic expression with a commitment to community service.

Event Highlights:

1. Poster Making Session: Participants engaged in a creative poster-making session, where they used colors, images, and slogans to convey powerful messages related to cancer awareness. The posters focused on themes such as early detection, healthy living, and supporting cancer patients.
2. Exhibition and Judging: The created posters were displayed in an exhibition, allowing participants to showcase their artistic expressions. A judging panel, comprising members from the Rotaract Club of Prestige and artistic professionals, evaluated the posters based on creativity, clarity of message, and overall impact.
3. Awareness Spread: The posters served as visual aids to communicate important information about cancer to a wider audience. Participants actively shared their creations on social media platforms, contributing to the broader dissemination of cancer awareness messages.

Acknowledgments: We extend our sincere gratitude to the Rotaract Club of Prestige for their collaboration and support in organizing the World Rose Day - Beware of Cancer (Poster Making) activity. Their commitment to community service and encouragement of creative initiatives significantly enhanced the success of the event.

Conclusion: The Poster Making activity successfully combined artistic expression with a vital message, spreading cancer awareness within the community. The collaboration with the Rotaract Club of Prestige not only enriched the event but also fostered a sense of social responsibility among the participants.
